

Codes of conduct for parents and carers

As parents you are expected to:

- Positively reinforce your child and show an interest in their chosen activity.
- Do not place your child under pressure or push them into activities they do not want to do.
- Complete and return the Registration, Medical and Consent Form pertaining to your child's participation with the BADER BRAVES FLYING DAY OR ACTIVITY WEEK-END
- Ensure your child has clothing appropriate to the weather conditions
- Any child not in possession of the fundamental requirements will not be permitted to participate.
- Detail any relevant medical concerns or conditions pertaining to their child on the registration/consent form. Any changes in the state of the child's health should be reported to the Douglas Bader Foundation staff prior to the activity.
- Behave responsibly on the side-line's; do not embarrass your child.
- Show appreciation and support the event staff.
- Ensure your child is punctual.
- Be realistic and supportive.

As a parents/carer you have the right to:

- Know your child is safe.
- Be informed of problems or concerns relating to your children.
- Be informed if your child is injured.
- Have your consent sought for issues such as flights/activities or photography.
- Have any concerns you have about any aspect of your child's welfare listened to responded to.

Any breaches of this code of conduct will be dealt with immediately by a “Douglas Bader Foundation” official. Persistent concerns or breaches will result in you being asked not to attend our events if your attendance is considered detrimental to the welfare of young participants.

The ultimate action should a parent/guardian continue to breach the code of behavior may be the “Name of Club, School or Event” officials regrettably asking the child to leave the session, event or club.
